The 8th New Ag International Conference & Exhibition

Hotel Hyatt Regency, Miami, USA
24-26th March 2010

Held for the first time in North America, the 8th New Ag International Conference & Exhibition will again be the unique place to conclude business and upgrade knowledge in plant nutrition, irrigation, fertigation, biocontrol and greenhouse cropping.

Building on the success of the previous 7 conferences, which attracted delegates from more than 60 countries of the five continents, the Miami event will attract most of the important suppliers from all over the world as well as key Buyers, Distributors and Consultants from North, Central and Latin America.

The event will be held in conjunction with a conference on Enhanced Efficiency Fertilizers (EEF), jointly organized by the International Fertilizer Industry Association (IFA) and New Ag International, which will take place on Tuesday 23rd, March. See separate brochure and browse IFA & New Ag International websites for more details.

PROVISIONAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME

The final programme of the New Ag International conference will be published early 2010. It will comprise of keynote lectures and papers (in total about 20 speakers). Conference topics will include technical and market developments in Specialty Plant Nutrition, Irrigation, Biological Plant Protection and Greenhouse technology with a focus on some important themes such as

- The Biostimulants: do they get all the attention they deserve from the academic research circles?
- The Biocontrol Industry capabilities of supplying a growing demand for its products.
- How to further accelerate the installation of sprinkler, microirrigation and fertigation systems.
- The future of Greenhouse cropping in the Americas.

EXHIBITION STANDS

There will be an exhibition of small trade stands alongside the conference. This will be an ideal platform for manufacturers and suppliers to showcase their products to a highly focused and professional local and international audience. Exhibition-only badges will be provided to a number of local visitors. As demand for exhibition stands will be high and space limited, please contact Andrew Osborne as soon as possible on Tel +44 (0) 20 8924821, Fax +44 (0) 20 8925972 or E-mail exhibitions@newaginternational.com .

MIAMI

The City of Miami known as the "Magic City" is located in Southeast Florida, in Miami-Dade County on the Miami River, between the Florida Everglades and the Atlantic Ocean. Since its incorporation in 1896, the City has grown tremendously, transforming it into one of the world's renowned centers where people can work, live and play while enjoying a high quality of life. Miami which is known as the Gateway to Latin America attracts a tremendous amount of foreign born people, resulting in a large Latin American population. The City has a 60 percent Hispanic population. Recognized worldwide as an international hub, a dynamic international center of business, entertainment and natural wonders, Miami offers the greatest American compromise between getting away from it all and being a part of it all!

CONFERENCE HOTEL

Move with the rhythm of the city at the downtown Miami hotel! The striking white towers of Hyatt Regency Miami overlook Biscayne Bay and connect to the Convention Center providing effortless access to everything from Brickell and Coral Gables to Coconut Grove and world-famous white sand beaches. The newly updated Hyatt hotel in downtown Miami offers an outstanding array of amenities - including the city's largest meeting space, dramatic bayside or skyline views from spacious guestrooms, and a lively bar and restaurant. New Ag International has reserved a limited number of rooms at preferential rates for delegates at the conference hotel
